

seven

Looking for more information

There is a wide variety of free government literature available on each of the topics you have read about in this guide. Before you undertake any major projects, you should check out the available information.

Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC)

Order publications by phone:
1 800 663-2642 or through their website: cmhc.ca

- About Your House – Wide variety of fact sheets on common housing questions such as moisture, mold, ventilation, carbon monoxide, ice dams, windows, hiring a contractor, etc.
- The Renovation Series – Fact sheets on renovation projects such as basements, attics, different styles and ages of homes

Natural Resources Canada (NRCan) and the Office of Energy Efficiency (OEE)

Order publications by phone
1 800 367-2000 or through their website
oee.nrcan.gc.ca

- Individual brochures and website information on air leakage, insulation, moisture, windows and doors, heating/cooling, appliances and lighting
- Information on EnerGuide labels and ratings and ENERGY STAR® federal rebates
- Keeping The Heat In – 130 plus pages of House as a System and renovation ideas for all areas of your home

Ontario Ministry of Energy and Infrastructure (OMEI)

Visit their website mei.gov.on.ca for information on:

- General energy efficiency information
- Provincial conservation programs such as rebates for Ontario Home Energy Savings Program

Ontario Power Authority (OPA)

Visit their website powerauthority.on.ca for information on:

- Electricity conservation programs and rebates
- Renewable energy and the Green Energy Act

Union Gas

Visit our website uniongas.com for information on:

- Energy Conservation programs and education
- Natural gas products, cost comparisons and where to buy or rent
- Rate and fuel cost comparisons by region